

The View I See

SCRIPTURE

LYRICS

These words were inspired by the following verses:

1 Corinthians 13: 9-12

The view I see is white with mist
Lines blurred and details numb
The light casts a million colours wide
Dispersed by a soft winter sun.

And here I see so deep within
An image found in my heart
The Truth that now is recognised
My eyes can see in part.

Ecclesiastes 3: 11

God has made everything
Beautiful in His time
He has planted eternity
In men's hearts and minds.

But only so that men may not
Find out what God has done
From the beginning to the end
(Yes) From the beginning to the end.

Praise the Lord (Isaiah 55:12)

Praise the Lord, Praise the Lord
For you shall go out with joy.
Praise the Lord, Praise the Lord
For you shall go out with joy.

Praise the Lord, Praise the Lord
And you'll be led out with peace
For you shall go out with joy
And you'll be led out with peace.

The mountains and the hills
Shall break forth into song
All the trees shall clap their hands.
The mountains and the hills
Shall break forth into song
All the trees shall clap their hands

When Christ took the route to where He ultimately would redeem all men from sin, He did it through blood, pain and suffering. We too must take up our cross. It is not that we seek suffering but rather suffering will be met along the road. However, Christ carries and strengthens us if we are willing to endure and keep going toward the goal for His Name's sake. This is His witness through us to all mankind.

I Will Go

I will go down this road
Jesus knows where it goes
This is where
I lift my cross to bear.

Dried up tears flood again
Riding on waves of pain
Through the storm
His mercy leads me on.

If I should be knocked down
He catches me with hands so strong
A light which guides till dawn
His Rock protects me from all harm.

When wounds heal, peace abounds
Mercy builds, love is found
This is why
I walk this road of life.
